Users Medical Device Incident Report eg Doctors, Nurses, Patients, Public

What should be reported? A medical device is any material instrument, apparatus, machine, implement, contrivance, implant etc (including any component, part or accessory) which is used in health care and includes in-vitro diagnostics.
Typical problems include deficiencies in labelling, instructions or packaging, defective components, performance failures, poor construction or design. Suggestions for rectifying the problem or improving product performance would be appreciated.

What should you do with the device? Please keep the device and its associated packaging until you are contacted by the TGA/Medsafe. To send the device please follow the instructions in this link http://www.tga.gov.au/industry/problem-device-samples-testing.htm

What happens to your report? The report will be investigated and discussed with the manufacturer/supplier. You may be contacted for further information. The report may also be reported to other Health Authorities. If action is considered necessary it may involve any of the following:

1. Recall - removal of goods from sale or use, or their correction, for reasons relating to safety, performance or quality.
2. Safety Alert – information relating to the correct use of the device to inform those responsible for the device, or affected by the problem.
3. Report in a TGA News Bulletin (a communication produced by the TGA and distributed in Australia and New Zealand to convey information on medical devices) or other appropriate journal(s).

Medical device manufacturers or suppliers should use form # MDIR03
