

FILE NOTE

To John Hall,

I said that changes to excluded goods order would be needed to make it clear that the order in relation to oral hygiene preparations does not extend to those required to be included in the Australian Register of Therapeutic Goods.

He said registered toothpastes are not excluded goods because they do not satisfy ~~most~~ the requirements in relation to how the oral hygiene preparations are to be used, advertised or presented for supply.

Greg Purcell
13/5/05