

AUSTRALIAN CRIME COMMISSION INVESTIGATION – ORGANISED CRIME AND DRUGS IN SPORT (PROJECT APERIO)

Response:

- The Therapeutic Goods Administration (TGA) can confirm that it has assisted the Australian Crime Commission (ACC) with their inquiries in relation to Project Aperio.
- It is not appropriate for the TGA to comment on any details of the TGA assistance in Project Aperio as this is a current investigation by the ACC.

BACKGROUND

The ACC has publicly released censored information entitled Organised Crime and Drugs in Sport, surrounding project Aperio which was an ACC investigation in relation to organised crime in the Performance and Image Enhancing Drugs (PIEDs) market.

The report, specifically at page four, gives some detail of the ACC investigation with the Australian Sports Anti Doping Authority (ASADA) and the TGA in relation to the use of peptides in Australian sport.
