In Regards: OFFER TO SETTLE IN PRIVATE

Dear Ernie Waldstein

The Person's Personal Representative, after seeking wise council, writes to Ernie Waldstein, today in his Private capacity and humbly and sincerely apologises for any dishonour he may have caused.

The Person's Personal Representative, in his Inherent Jurisdiction de jure solum et naturale, conditionally accepts that Ernie Waldstein has made a well pled claim that, Meryl Dorey has advertised and promoted 'Black Salve' and that Leon Pittard has further promoted and advertised 'Black Salve' by publishing the interview, and offers to settle this matter in private upon Ernie Waldstein in his own private capacity providing true, correct and complete proof; that

- Relating a personal condition to anyone constitutes advertising; and that
- The person making the claim has full knowledge of any fees paid for any alleged advertising; and that
- The right to free speech is not an inherent right; and that
- Any Corporation has the right to sue any individual in their private capacity; and
- The Persons Personal Representative in his Inherent Jurisdiction is not able to settle this matter in private.

NOTICE

Ernie Waldstein, in his own private capacity, shall have twenty one days (21) from being served to respond by rebutting all of the above - point for point - or it shall be declared that free speech is still an inherent right, and the Person's Personal Representative has the proprietary right to settle all outstanding issues in the private.

Sincerely

M.D.
