

The draft compositional guideline for the substance will be available to sponsors (through the TGA Internet site) at the time of gazettal of the substance. Finalisation of compositional guidelines will be determined after TGA consideration of stakeholder's comments. Any revision of the draft arising from stakeholder's comments will not result in either the implementation of additional requirements or tightening of limits presented in original draft document.