

I am concerned about the proposed changes to Homeopathy. I say NO to option 4. The TGA is in place to protect our safety in relation to the many dangerous medicines and treatments, not restrict our access to safe, complimentary medicines like homeopathy. Homeopathy is recognised by WHO as the most widely used complimentary medicine worldwide and has been used successfully for centuries. It is my right to make choices about my health and my right to have access to homeopathy.