

I'm concerned that Option 4 of the TGA Consultation will restrict homeopathic information and remedies, and my access to them, and do not accept Option 4 as a valid or fair choice. The TGA is there to protect consumers from safety rather than restricting access to safe medicines. Homeopathic remedies are safe and low risk so there is no need to restrict them.