

I am writing to ask the TGA to keep homeopathic medicines in their current category of classification which allows access to homeopathic medicine. These medicines have greatly helped myself and my family and I value the choice to still be able to purchase these homeopathic medicines freely in Australia. I support option 1 to keep the current classification and totally refute the option to reclassify these as non-therapeutic.

Thank you.