

Please leave homoepathics and homeopathy as it is

I have seen it work when nothing else could in a number of instances from healing a kitten in tick paralysis to bringing better health to a young girl who had chronic health issues as well as supporting healing for acute health issues

It has been recognised as a safe effective healing modality for many years – please leave it alone