

Rachel Hannon

5/5/17

To whom it may concern

Submission to oppose TGA restricting access to safe products Australians freely choose to use as therapeutic goods.

I believe that homeopathy is the safest option of any medicine available and I make a plea that option 1 - homeopathy is kept regulated the way it is and remains as a therapeutic good. I strongly oppose options 3 and 4 and disagree that the TGA should restrict access and take away Australians choices when it comes to choosing safe products to use.

Rachel Hannon